Troop 880 will be attending the King Richard's Faire in Carver, Massachusetts. We will be camping Friday and Saturday evening's at Scout Camp Squanto in the Miles Standish State Forest. The troop will be meeting at the Church Friday evening at 5:30 September 30th . Please make sure the scout has eaten dinner before he arrives at the church. We will go directly to Camp Squanto and set up camp. Please pack all your gear in backpacks if possible. Saturday morning everyone will get up, eat the breakfast their Patrol prepared, clean-up and then we will go to the Faire. The Faire is about 8 miles from our Camp, Please be wearing your class B's. That is orange troop shirt or just an orange shirt. Scout's we may have some in our troop closet. If you are planning on attending and need troop gear you can sign it out at the troop meeting Thursday night. The troop will be spending entire day at the Faire. Lunch will be at the Faire, so each scout should have lunch money. We will leave to go back to camp late afternoon. The King Richard's Faire is reenactment of a 16th century English marketplace at festival time. Actors, dancers, puppeteers, jugglers, minstrels, mimes, magicians and musicians for the favor of his Royal Highness King Richard at the faire. I have attached the website (www.kingrichardsfaire.net) .Here you can see and read about the shows, the Faire itself, and the schedule.

Patrol Cooking

This trip will be Patrol cooking. Each Patrol will have to plan for Saturday breakfast, lunch, and dinner and Sunday morning breakfast. We plan to get up Sunday morning eat breakfast and be on the road home by 9:30 arriving back at the Church about noon time. The cost of this trip is 20 dollars per person. If you have any questions please call me at 860-882-3111. I would like to know by 9/21 who is planning on attending. This is a very popular trip and I want to get the Patrols organized. Deadline 9/21
